PROFESSIONAL RUGBY CAREER

2016

I decided to leave school and pursue an opportunity to train and compete for the 2020* Olympics. Over the years I traveled around the world playing for the USA National 7s team. I continued to play and as time passed, I matured and developed on and off the field to become a trusted veteran player.

2018-2019

During this year I made a huge sacrifice and decided to leave the USA 7s program and pursue an opportunity to represent my country at the 2019 World Cup in Japan. This was a difficult decision but I knew this is what I wanted to achieve and I gratefully got the opportunity to play in Japan. through hard work and believing in myself

2020-22

Deciding to return to have a chance to compete in the Tokyo Olympics I returned to the USA 7s program, where I was voted into the leadership group leading into the Olympics games which was an honor to be selected by my peers by showing handwork, leadership qualities, and communication skills. During the year I got the opportunity to play professional rugby in London, coming from a small town I never dreamed of doing that so I took the opportunity and fell in love with the English culture and living abroad as an American. I fully believe life is about the experiences and the people you meet on the way.

2022-2023

Took an opportunity to spend a year in Houston, TX playing professional rugby. Which was enjoyable for many reasons, this team focused on the community and did their best to engage with the local youth and provide opportunities.

2023- 2024

Montana Institute of Sport (Operations Manager & Program Lead at Montana Institute Of Sport)

Since I have made a career out of playing rugby I decided I wanted to give back to the sport that gave me once in lifetime opportunities and relationships. I work around the state of Montana delivering rugby clinics in all schools in the state. Giving PE teachers a 8 week curriculum that aligns with their school board. Also creating programs in low-income areas, giving youth more opportunities regardless of income. It's a really rewarding and impactful job that you have last impact on me.
